I've No Use for Flowers

Closing Reception: I've No Use for Flowers

TODAY, Sunday, May 1, 2-5pm, MEME Gallery, 55 Norfolk St., Cambridge. Free.

This solo exhibition of new works by Andrew Neumann, presented by MEME Gallery in conjunction with Boston Cyberarts, is a series of works which explore the intersection of the man-made, the artificial, and artifice all in the quest for examining "beauty," the integration for beauty in all of it's guises. Comprised of plexiglas boxes, motors and artificial foliage, I've No Use For Flowers examines the paradox and contradictions of pure beauty.

Keep Cyberarts Free

Have you noticed how many free events we have at the Festival? We're proud of how many of our events and exhibitions are free to the public, but it doesn't come easily. It takes the support of many generous individuals and organizations to fully fund these projects, so we don't have to charge admission. Please consider making a donation to help keep Cyberarts free and accessible to the public. Click here to make a contribution, or snail-mail a check to:
